C O U N T Y

Bayfield County is the second largest county in Wisconsin, but there's not one traffic light! There is a lot to see and do – to make it easier to navigate, we've divided the county into six sections and color coded them throughout this guide.

ON THE COVER The Silence of Fog by France Austin Miller. "Established in 1987, my studio and gallery overlook Lake Superior near where I was born. The Big Lake's clarity and reflections beg to be painted! Watercolor's fluid nature leads a painter through creative journeys, freeing the imagination, while nourishing the soul. Watercolors are transparent, easily portable and decidedly spontaneous, (characteristics rarely found in other mediums). Painting has brought great joy to my life, connecting me with wonderful individuals and opening my senses to all forms of art and design." ## St. Croix National Scenic Riverway

www.NamekagonRiver.org

A free national park flows through the vast forests of northwest Wisconsin. This incredible gem is part of the St. Croix National Scenic Riverway. The Namekagon River begins in Bayfield County, flowing through Sawyer, Washburn and Burnett Counties prior to meeting up with the St. Croix. While many people recognize the name, Namekagon River, few realize that this is part of the national park system. Of special note is that the Namekagon River is a Wild & Scenic River, as declared by the Wild & Scenic Rivers Act of 1968. Of the original eight rivers designated by the act, the St. Croix National Scenic Riverway, which includes the Namekagon, is the only river managed by the National Park Service, making this park America's first Wild & Scenic River National Park.

Hunting

With over 430,000 acres of public access between National, County and State land, Bayfield County offers an opportunity for all types of hunting. You'll find whitetail deer, turkey, bear, small game, and Lake Superior is a big draw for migratory waterfowl.

Birding

The Chequamegon Bay region is among the top birding destinations in the Midwest, with an amazing variety of high-quality habitats and opportunities to see more than 300 bird species. Extraordinary natural beauty and abundant public land make Wisconsin's Lake Superior shoreline an ideal location for birdwatching and wildlife viewing. Join us in May for the Chequamegon Bay Birding & Nature Festival – your chance to learn about birds and nature in one of the Midwest's most beautiful settings!

Fishing

Bayfield County is the perfect place to come for an abundance of fishing opportunities throughout the year:

WINTER Early ice on Lake Superior offers great shallow-water fishing for a multitude of species. By late January, deepwater "bobbing" for Lake Trout near the Apostle Islands begins. Inland lakes provide great ice fishing opportunities as well.

SPRING Peak opportunities for spring fishing are in May. Inland fishing also heats up with the spawning seasons and relatively easy fishing close to shore.

SUMMER Summertime is Lake Trout time on Superior. Trollers head out into the Apostle Islands, South Shore and the flats east of Madeline Island. Inland lakes are fun to explore and fish all summer long.

FALL Fall is one of the best times to fish – the lakes are less crowded and fish start feeding well in preparation for winter. Stream fishing gets good for big, mature fish.
